

Figure S1. Immunofluorescence of 33 human lung tumor samples on a microarray probed with GT103. Fluorescence for each spot was measured in two different locations and the means +/- standard deviation determined.